LE PARENT CODE OF CONDUCT AY 25/26

ليـــوا للتعليم
Liwa Education

LE schools shall work in partnership with parents to support their child's learning and development. In order to ensure success for students, parents are encouraged to model appropriate behavior and values. In accordance with ADEK's Parent Engagement Policy, parents are also required to agree to the following code of conduct:

Parents shall:

- Respect the vision, mission and value statements of each LE school and its learning environment.
- Treat members of the entire school community including students, staff of all levels (inclusive of security guards and cleaners etc.), and other parents in a professional and respectful manner and maintain relationships in the best interest of the students.
- Acknowledge that the education and wellbeing of each child whilst in school is a joint responsibility based on a positive school to home relationship between the school and the parent and that they will commit to their responsibilities (e.g. ensure their children engage in home learning, get adequate sleep, consume healthy foods, engage in physical activity))
- Set a good example with regard to speech and behavior and a willingness to resolve concerns in a professional manner whether verbal or written (e.g. not raising one's tone or using offensive language).
- Refrain from posting culturally inconsiderate or defamatory content about parents, students or staff on social media as per the ADEK Cultural Consideration Policy
- Seek to clarify a child's version of events with the school's view in order to bring about a peaceful solution to any disputes.
- Correct their child's behavior, where it could lead to conflict/unsafe conduct or limit the ability of other children to learn.
- Commit and be respectful of the school's general policies and whilst on the school premises, behave and dress in a manner that is respectful of UAE national identity, cultural values and its current legislation
- Strive to achieve and to maintain excellent daily attendance and punctuality of their child, including not taking holiday's outside of the official school breaks, providing medical certificates to explain absences, following up on their child's academic performance, and being respectful of arrival and pick-up times.
- Respect the school's policy on academic honesty and integrity (i.e. monitoring their child's schoolwork for plagiarism, refraining from providing unnecessary assistance to ensure the work accurately reflects the child's ability. This includes refraining from providing false information to the school (i.e. submitting fraudulent documents and making false excuses for absences).

- Respond to messages, emails, phone calls and school requests to attend meetings and parent/teacher conferences as invited to maintain frequent positive communication to benefit their child's growth and steady progress.
- Cooperate with the school's recommendations for additional learning support, in instances where the school deems learning support necessary for their child's educational progress and development.

Should the above minimum requirements be disrespected or ignored, at the discretion of the school, parents may be asked to leave the school premises or be denied entry.

It is important for student development and achievement that both school and home work closely together for the benefit of the child. By ensuring the above points are adhered to, parents are providing the best opportunity for their child to be successful.
